Athletic Director:

The Eagles turned in a fine 8-3 season last year, and return a multitude of options on offense, led by QB Mason Bassett, Nolyn Stafford, Hunter Donahue, Jaxson Silva, Brady Gancarz, and Wyatt Whitman. All signs point to at least another successful season, and possibly a postseason run.

Athletic Director:

Head Coach:
Scott Dredge

The Redhawks got off to an 8-0 start and a state tournament appearance before finishing at 9-1 for 2025. A talented senior class has departed, but the talent pipeline is still in full effect. QB Konnor James is back as a dual threat, along with Noah Poreda, whose elusiveness and speed often finds him in the end zone. Look for the 'Hawks to make another run in '26.

Head Coach:
Mike Kuchieski

Jeff Bengston takes over for Hall of Fame Coach Mike Kuchieski. Bengston has been part of the Green Wave coaching staff the last two years, and is well aware of what he has to work with. It all starts with QB Gavin Arsenault. When healthy, Arsenault can be a game-changer, as can Kymel Ramsey. Health will be a key for the Green Wave to rise in the Intercounty League standings this year.

Tom Hogan

The Eagles were soaring along with a 4-1 record before a midseason slump led to a 6-5 overall record last season. There are plenty of playmakers returning this year for new head coach Tom Hogan, including Patrick Larson, Luis Salgado, and Noah Geddis, so hopes are high for another winning season in 2026.
